

VAHA's Youth Hockey Players' Code of Conduct

Each player must sign the player's code of conduct and respect coaches, competitors, officials, parents, fans and arena employees. Players must also respect the Viroqua Community Arena and visited facilities. Discipline will result for any of the following:

1. Any instigating and/or fighting before, during or after games.
2. Any misuse of the stick, or use of the stick with intent to harm or injure another player.
3. Any use of smoking or chewing tobacco, alcoholic beverages or drugs while is a member of VAHA teams during the hockey season.
4. Any use of vulgarity in language, gestures or insinuations of any kind.
5. Any back talk or disrespect shown to any coach, official or arena employee.
6. Any theft, intentional mistreatment or destruction of Viroqua Community Arena property and/or Viroqua Area Hockey Association property as well as visited facilities property.

Violations while representing Viroqua Area Hockey Association as a hockey player will result in the following suspensions:

1. One game for the first infraction.
2. Three games for the second infraction, plus appearance before the Association Board with parents and coach.
3. The entire season for the third infraction-upon review of the Association Board.

Depending on the severity of the infraction, the Association Board has the discretion to initiate more severe disciplinary measures.

Players must also abide by the Viroqua Community Arena general rules.

1. No sticks or puck use anywhere but on the ice or designated areas.
2. No running or horseplay that is not a part of practices.
3. Keep the Arena clean. If you drop or see trash pick it up. Don't expect someone else to do it

Violations of the Viroqua Community Arena general rules will result in one warning and then may be considered as violations of the VAHA Players' Code of Conduct.

I hereby have read and will abide by the VAHA Players' Code of Conduct.
